Beefsteak Tomato (Tomate Beefsteak)

Big, thick, juicy slices of garden-fresh tomatoes are one of summer's most delicious pleasures. Our Beefsteak variety produces huge, sliceable tomatoes that are especially tasty on hamburgers, or stuffed with chicken or tuna salad. Or enjoy them southern-style, between two slices of bread, spread with mayonnaise and sprinkled with salt and pepper. Dice for salads, or in fresh salsa with our other bag gardens. WP70 - $11.00

Italian Parsley
(Perejil Italiano)

Chefs prefer Italian parsley for cooking because it contains more of the essential oils that give the most flavor. With a fresh, green taste, it is especially good for making stock, stews or sauces, as the flavor is never overwhelming. Add it to mixed green salads, or try it with fruit salads where it provides an interesting flavor contrast. WP74 - $11.00

Jalapeño Peppers
(Chile Jalapeño)

Fire up your cooking with these peppers, first discovered in Jalapa, Mexico. They have a fiery flavor, and are a versatile addition to nachos, enchiladas and burritos. Jalapeños can be eaten green or red, and they create a wonderfully complex taste in sauces and dips. Turn up the heat in soups and stews, or if you're adventurous, serve them straight on a relish plate. WP71 - $11.00

Cilantro
(Cilantro)

Cilantro is the leaf of the young coriander plant, cultivated throughout history. It is an essential ingredient in Tex-Mex dishes, and imparts a fresh taste to salsas and bean dips. Crush leaves before using for maximum flavor. Delicious mixed with sour cream to top enchiladas, tacos and chili. Adds a pleasant parsley and citrus note to oriental stir fry and salad dressings.
